Another thoroughly enjoyable program arranged by the Matinee Musicians was given Monday afternoon in Temple hall. The music of England and Wales was rendered and the affair was in charge of Miss Berenice Crowley and Miss Wilfred Holmes. Miss Nina Winans sang the first number in a pleasing manner. The songs were illustrative of the Old English style and Miss Winans interpreted them very prettily. Mrs. Mulford presented a "Recycle" by West, very artistically. Mrs. C. P. Craig sang a group of three songs and received much applause. The song cycle, "In a Persian Garden" by Liza Lehmann was interpreted by a quartette composed of Miss Irene Smith, Miss Antoinette West, Mr. C. H. Tyler and Mr. C. O. Appelhagen. Although the Cycle has been heard in Duluth several times before, an artistic singing, such as was given Monday, is always enjoyed. Miss Simonds was at the piano.

A pretty wedding will take place at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart tomorrow at 8:30 a. m. when Miss Anna M. Farrell and Leo A. Ball will be married. Miss Farrell's only attendant will be her sister, Miss Elizabeth Farrell, and Mr. Otto C. Hartman will be best man.

A wedding reception will be held after the ceremony at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. James Farrell, on East Sixth street. Miss Farrell is a favorite Duluth singer and also prominent in social circles. Mr. Ball is a well known Duluth lawyer.

A very pleasant party was tendered to Mr. J. S. Kelly, of 520 Fourth avenue East, last week, the occasion being his sixtieth birthday anniversary. All who attended were members of the Foresters of which order Mr. Kelly is an old member. He joined the organization when there were but 48 enrolled in the entire state. The guests presented him with a handsome Morris chair and a dainty luncheon was served. The guests were:

Sullivan, Mr. J. A. Island and Mr. L. Code.

A wedding of interest to many in Duluth was solemnized Tuesday morning at the Cathedral of the Sacred Heart, when Harry C. Huot was married to Miss Charlotte Romineux. The wedding was a very quiet one, witnessed only by a few of the relatives and intimate friends of the families. Miss Josephine Huot, sister of the groom acted as maid of honor, and Victor Huot, brother of the groom as best man. Mr. and Mrs. Huot left on the night train for a ten-days' trip in the southern part of the state and will be at home January 1 in Ashtabula flats.

Miss Caroline Olson, daughter of C. Olson, of 22 West First street, and Louis Larson, of St. Paul, were married Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the home of the bride by Rev. Mr. Tweede, of the First Danish-Norwegian church. After a reception at the home, the newly married couple left on the night train for St. Paul. They will be at home after Dec. 1, at 533 Winnifred street.

An event of much interest to people of Duluth is the double wedding which is to take place next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Martha Wilder Smith, of No. 2 Chester Terrace. Miss Martha Cornelle Smith and William Darwin Edson, and Miss Janet Smith and Mr. David Halsey Costello will be married by Dr. T. H. Cleland, of the First Presbyterian church in the presence of only a few relatives of the family. The appointments and decorations will be very pretty and a large reception will be held from 2 to 4. Mr. and Mrs. Edson will leave for New York where they will make their home. Mr. and Mrs. Costello will reside in Duluth and will be at home after January 1 on East First street.

The Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian church will give a card party Thursday evening Nov. 12, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Stearns, No. 1165 London Road.

A most enjoyable concert was given for charity at the Sixth Avenue Theater Thursday evening. Some of the best talent of the city took part and a good concert was the result.

The first number was a piano solo played by Mr. Marx Oberendorfer, who has lately come to Duluth and was heard for the first time. His playing was thoroughly delightful. Mrs. Orlando Grover Brice was heard in two very pleasing solos. Signor Valenza whose playing is always good played two numbers. Miss Jane Everington sang very prettily and responded to a deserved encore. Miss Mae Wylie's two recitations were well given and enjoyed fully. Miss Nina Winans sang a group of three songs very sweetly. Oliver Colbertson, one of Duluth's talented young musicians played a violin solo in a manner which proved him an artist and he responded to a hearty encore. Miss Rena Smith sang a number very artistically and responded to an encore which was the last on the program. The concert was a thorough success and much credit is due the ladies who arranged it.

The annual meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's church was held on Friday afternoon with Mrs. A. W. Ryan at the rectory. The election of officers resulted as follows: Mrs. F. H. Barnard, president; Mrs. Henry Taylor, secretary; Miss Hunter, treasurer. Several matters of interest were discussed and after tea the meeting adjourned. On December 12 Mrs. Murray will receive the Auxiliary at her home.
