
ADDITIONAL BREVITIES.

R. H. Bruner owned the dwelling on Park Point that was destroyed by fire Friday evening. The loss is estimated at $700.

Stejles Gerjin, an Austrian miner, was arraigned in municipal court yesterday on charges preferred by Miss Ursula Turk. The examination was set for Monday. Gerjin was married about a month ago.

Sampel E. Stokes, of Philadelphia, was yesterday given a permit to erect a brick building on the southwest corner of First avenue East and First street, at a cost of $14,210. The building will be occupied by a laundry. J. J. Haley took out a permit for the erection of a $4,220 building on the lower side of Superior street, between Second and Third avenues west.

Joseph Lafrange was arrested by Po-liceman Fritz last evening about 8:30 o'clock. Moses Cook, a Bowery merchant, accused the man of being the individual that passed a check on him a few days ago that did not belong to him. Lafrange was released at the station, and he left a $100 certificate for safe keeping with the officers.

The city officers elected at the last election entered upon their duties yesterday, the first day of March. In former days it was the custom to take office on the fourth, but the late city charter calls for the first day of the month. Mayor Hugo has taken his office and is not worrying about the recount.

Deputy County Treasurer Williamson said yesterday that Friday was a record breaker in the matter of receipts for taxes. They amounted to $97,800.

The board of fire commissioners held its regular meeting yesterday afternoon. The routine business was the only thing that came up.

An error in the advertisement of the Zenith City Telephone company in yesterday morning's paper, announced the night rates as 21 cents for three minutes. The rate should have read 25 cents, instead, which is the new schedule just established by the company.

C. W. Crosby is ill with pneumonia. Mrs. G. H. Crosby is recovering from a severe attack of inflammatory rheumatism.