The fifteenth annual Hogmany social concert and dance on New Year's eve, under the auspices of Clan Cameron, in Maryland hall, was a leading social function of this week. The efforts of the clan to provide a hall large enough to accommodate the merrymakers were taxed to the utmost.

When the first number on the program was called, beautifully to the limit Maryland hall was filled to the limit of its capacity by the sons of Scotland.

During the early part of the evening an excellent musical program, interspersed with addresses and Scottish dances, was rendered. Following the program the hall was cleared for dancing, and hundreds of exquisitely gowned ladies and their escorts joined in the dance which consumed the waning hours of the old year and ushered in the new.

At 12:30 the folding doors between the dancing hall and the dining room annex were thrown open and the large gathering surrounded the sumptuously laden festive board and did ample justice to "Bobbie" Burns' favorite dish, the oyster pie, while toasting the noted author, who has in verse immortalized the home and the hills of the Scots.

The following program was rendered:

- Address Chief W. H. Lambert
- Selection on Scottish Airs—Bagpipes

The following will be sung by the audience:

A guid New Year to one and all
 An' money may ye see
 An' during a' the years to come
 Oh, happy may ye be.
 An' may ye ne'er have cause to mourn
 To sigh or shed a tear
 To aine and a' baith great an' sma'
 A happy guid New Year.

Now let us hope our years may be
 As guid as they ha'e been
 An' trust we ne'er again may see
 The sorrows we ha'e seen
 An' let us wish that ane an' a'
 Our friends, baith far an' near,
 May a' enjoy in time to come,
 A hearty, guid New Year.

CHORUS.

A guid New Year to aye an' a'
 And money may ye see.
 An' during a' the years to come,
 Oh, happy may ye be.

Red Men's league, Company A, First regiment, gave their first annual ball at Maryland hall New Year's night. The event proved to be a social success in every sense, while the patriotic side of the occasion made the occasion still more popular.

The members of Company A were attired in full dress uniform, of the colonial style. The ladies wore Martha Washington gowns bringing forcibly into the foreground the scenes and events of continental days.

The decorations were beautiful and tasty. At the front of the hall, in electrical effects of red white and blue were arranged the letters and figures: "R. M. L. 1903," while grouped around the portrait of George Washington, at the rear of the hall, were the figures "1776." The walls and ceiling were festooned with ground pine and national colors.

There was a large attendance of Red Men and their friends.

Flynn's orchestra furnished the music and the "dog feast" an essential adjunct to Red Men functions, was enjoyed in the annex to the large dancing hall.

The committee on arrangements consisted of Ivan Brown, J. M. Eichton, W. N. Lorrigan, Dr. A. S. Andrews, A. Figmueller and N. J. Patterson.

Royal Camp, M. W. A., will hold its annual installation of officers in their quarters in the Ager block Wednesday night. The event will be made the occasion for a social function for the Woodmen and their friends. Following the installation ceremonies refreshments will be served and the remainder of the evening will be enjoyed in dancing.

Mr. and Mrs. William Holden of Indian Head, E. C. are in the city renewing old acquaintances. Mr. Holden was formerly connected with the local police department.
