

EVELETH

News Tribune Correspondence:

EVELETH, Feb. 13.—Miss Anna Van Buskirk won the handsome mahogany rocker that was given away by the Talboys Mercantile company.

The Finnish Temperance society gave a social in its new hall Saturday night for the purpose of raising funds to pay for finishing the place. The social was well patronized, and the receipts were very satisfactory.

Marshal Janus was at the Pettit mine Friday. He went over to get a man who evidently wanted to run the mine, and the location as well.

Fergus Ellsworth returned Monday, after spending a few days with relatives in St. Paul.

Louis Schuriman, the Sparta clothier, was here Friday.

The Episcopal Mission Guild is making elaborate preparations for the production of "Pinafore" in the near future. This evening the ladies are giving a social dancing party in the Fayal hall.

George E. Payne, agent for the United States Express company at this place, has gone to Los Angeles, Cal., in search of health.

R. F. Berdle was over from Hibbing Saturday.

John Granum, a former member of the village council and resident of Eveleth, came up from Sand Creek, Wis., Saturday, and is visiting at the home of his son Christ.

C. D. Brush, of St. Paul, was in Eveleth Monday.

Hon. Neil McInnis went to St. Paul Tuesday morning on business matters.

Frank Rabinowitz was a Zenith city visitor Tuesday.

On Thursday afternoon, St. Mary's lake was the scene of one of the best horse races ever witnessed on the range. The very best stock in this part of the state was pitted against each other, and much excitement was elicited from the spectators.

The clerks of Eveleth will dance on the 20th, and the Red Men on the 23d.

George E. Payne's team of ponies was drawn for Saturday night at the City drug store, and ticket No. 187, held by Frank W. Miller, was the one which took the prize.