

SUPERIOR IN BRIEF.

The People's Telephone company will put in another section to its West End switchboard. It will be equipped with "supervisors," enabling central to tell when one or both parties have hung up the receivers, thus obviating "cutting in."

The Young People's society of the First Baptist church, on Wednesday, will give an entertainment. The receipts will be used to beautify the interior of the church. Miss Jessie Woodford, the accomplished impersonator, will participate.

Daniel Haley, lumberman, has returned to Superior from conducting the season's work in his various camps. He reports that the year has been a most profitable one.

The funeral of Mrs. Louis Karon, who died at the Leslie hospital Saturday afternoon, was held from her late residence, 426 Twelfth avenue yesterday afternoon. The deceased has been ill for some time and death was induced by a complication of diseases.

The Ninth Ward Improvement league will meet at the fire hall Monday night to arrange for the petition of the residents regarding the planting of trees in the district to the council.

Lillian Violet, the five year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Gunerson, 782 West Ninth street, died at five o'clock yesterday morning, after a few days' illness of dropsy. After brief services at the home at 8 o'clock this evening the remains will be taken to Ellizabeth, Minn., for burial.

The funeral of Alexander Johnson took place from the LeSage undertaking rooms yesterday afternoon. The interment was at Graceland cemetery.

The library board will hold a regular meeting today.

One of the latest literary attractions received by the public library is the report of the Gettysburg National Park commission. The work is profusely illustrated with military scenes.

The Billings Park Improvement league will meet this evening. The chief topic will be that of shade trees and the planting of them for this particular part of the city. It is presumed a petition on the subject, to be presented to the common council tonight, will be adopted.

The South Superior Improvement association at its annual meeting tonight will elect officers for the year. Homer Andrew is the president; E. J. Heule, vice-president; John Heule, Secretary, and Robert Stuart, treasurer.

The funeral of Fred Johnson, 38 years old, who died at St. Mary's hospital Thursday afternoon, took place from the LeSage undertaking rooms yesterday afternoon. A sister of the deceased, Mrs. G. A. Rakowsky, is a resident of Duluth.

The remains of Hugo Pryer, who died at St. Mary's hospital yesterday afternoon, are at LeSage's undertaking rooms awaiting advices from relatives who live at Sudbury, Ont. He was 50 years old and employed as a woodsman. Death was due to tuberculosis.