

MISS KARON APPOINTED TO PLACE IN CUSTOMS OFFICE

Superior Young Lady Who Won in Competitive Examination.

Miss Helen Karon, well known in Superior business circles as a stenographer, at present filling a position with the Bag company, will today succeed Miss Irma Greenlee as inspector in the local customs office.

The offer of the place is the result of the last January competitive examination under civil service rules, Miss Karon ranking next to Miss Doe, who secured the highest percentage.

On the resignation, and previous to the examination, Miss Greenlee, who ranked fourth, was appointed temporarily to the place. It is stated that in the examination the standings were unusually high, ranging from 90 to 92 per cent.
