

ABRAHAM KARON DEAD.

Old Resident of Duluth Succumbs to Dropsy After Long Illness.

Abraham Karon, who had resided in Duluth for the past fifteen years, died yesterday of dropsy at the home of his son, S. Karon, 20 West Second street, aged seventy years. He had been sick for nearly a year.

Mr. Karon was well known in Duluth and for a number of years was one of the partners in the Northwestern Iron Metal company, junk dealers at 17 and 19 East First street. He leaves three sons and four daughters: Louis Karon and S. Karon, of Duluth, and Solomon Karon, of Superior, and Mrs. B. Karner, Mrs. N. Golden and Mrs. F. Sher, of this city, and Mrs. S. L. Mark, of Ironwood, Mich.

The funeral will be held at twelve o'clock noon, today, from the home of S. Karon and interment will be in the Jewish cemetery.
