

CLOSES OUT HIS CLOTHING INTEREST

B. J. COOK.

B. J. Cook Rounds Out a Successful Career in Duluth Business Circles.

Because other business interests will command his entire attention in the future B. J. Cook of the Eagle Clothing company has decided to retire from that line of business. Mr. Cook has been identified with the clothing business for the past sixteen years and has been very successful in that line. A dissolution of the firm of the Eagle Clothing company will be effected, Mr. Cook stepping out of the business and will devote his attention to other interests.

While always recognized as being charitable to a degree Mr. Cook has never allowed any mention of his name to be used in connection with donations which have originated from that source but many deeds of charity are attributed to his kindly nature. He has always been an energetic business man and his success in the lines in which he has been engaged is merited.

In the future Mr. Cook will confine his efforts to the management of Cook's European hotel, which has come to be considered one of the best hostelries of its kind in the city, and the Duluth Dredge & Dock company, which has also been a very successful venture.

Mr. Cook's many friends, who have dealt with him during the time he has been engaged in the clothing business will regret his retirement from that line and will wish him as much success in his dealings in the future as he has met with in the past.
