Eveleth Man and Mora Young Woman Are Married in Duluth.

Solomon Sax, a well known business man of Eveleth, was married yesterday afternoon at two o'clock in Kalamazoo hall to Miss Rose Gudell of Mora, Minn., in the presence of the bride's parents and many friends from various towns in northern Wisconsin, Michigan and Minnesota.

The ceremony, which was conducted by Rev. S. Snitzer of Tiferesh Israel congregation, of Duluth, was according to the rites of the orthodox Hebrew church. Miss Freda Gudell, a sister of the bride, was bridesmaid and Samuel Epstein of Duluth supported the groom. The bride wore a gown of white silk crepe de chine and carried white bridal roses. Adorning her hair were sprays of myrtle instead of the customary orange blossoms.

At five o'clock Mr. and Mrs. Sax left on the Omaha train for Milwaukee, Chicago and New York, and from the latter point, they will sail in about two weeks for Europe. They will spend about three months in Germany.

Mrs. Sax is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Simon Gudell, of Mora, Minn. Mr. Gudell is a merchant there.
