

KARON CASE TO BE PROBED

Intimated at Capital That
Mills May Be Asked to Resign.

NEWS TRIBUNE BUREAU,
POSTAL BUILDING,
WASHINGTON, D. C., Dec. 21.—

Representative Jenkins requested the treasury department today to thoroughly investigate the charges preferred against Miss Helen Karon, stenographer in the office of T. H. Mills, deputy collector of customs at Superior. Mr. Jenkins received a number of telegrams today from friends of Miss Karon asking that this be done in order that Miss Karon may be vindicated. As a result of this investigation, it was intimated at the treasury department today, that Mr. Mills will be asked to resign.
