

LAKE BREEZES.

North Land printery, Torrey building. The L. Hammel Co. just received two car loads of the Studebaker Bros. Mfg. Co.'s wagons, carriages and buggies.

"Parlor Theater," a magnificent show.

Estimates made on special refrigerators to fit any place with anything you may select. Northern Hardware Co., 222 West Superior street.

"Parlor Theater," a carnival of novelties.

David Hood, a Duluth building contractor, has been awarded a contract for the construction of a new depot at Houghton, for the Duluth, South Shore & Atlantic road. It will be a very handsome and substantial structure, costing about $30,000.

A circular has been issued by the Northern Pacific road announcing the appointment of Charles A. Matthews, formerly district passenger agent for the state of Illinois, to the position of general agent of the passenger department in Chicago. The appointment was effective yesterday. J. C. Thompson is appointed district agent to succeed Mr. Matthews.

E. H. Windom left yesterday for Niagara Falls to attend the annual convention of the Association of American Claim Agents, which will be held there June 3 to 5 inclusive. The association met last year at Kansas City, and about 160 members were in attendance.

The work of paving Second avenue west began yesterday by Contractor P. McDonnell, and will be pushed forward to completion as rapidly as circumstances will permit. The avenue will be paved from Michigan to Second street. The wooden culvert in Michigan street is being taken out and will be replaced with a pipe sewer. Contractor McDonnell stated yesterday that he would employ as many men as he could find places for.

Small boys living in the vicinity of Hunter's Park are catching some big trout. A day or two ago Willie, the 16 year old son of William E. Culkin, register in the United States Land office, came home with three trout which were taken right near home. Speaking of the sizes of the trout, Mr. Culkin declared they weighed enough to fry.

"Parlor Theater," season's big vaudeville bill.

Tilton Lewis and M. Canfield will play in the pool tournament this evening at the St. Louis. It lies between Pond and Lewis for first money.

The funeral of the late Henry Flaaten, who died Sunday at his home, 921 East First street, will be held from the Norwegian Lutheran church, First avenue East and Third street, at 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Mr. Flaaten was 54 years of age, and is survived by the widow and eight children as follows: Mrs. H. J. Flaaten, J. H. Flaaten, Mrs. L. H. Larsen, Gustav Flaaten, Andrien Flaaten, Henry Flaaten, Alphin Flaaten, Electa Flaaten and Ruth Flaaten.

William Runkle, one of the striking telephone linemen who was arrested on May 21 for committing an assault upon Donald H. Campbell, a non-union employe, was arraigned in the municipal court yesterday and entered a plea of not guilty to the charge. His hearing was set for Wednesday, June 3, at 2 o'clock p. m.

Emil Jenson pleaded guilty yesterday in the municipal court to the charge of malicious destruction of property and was fined $35 and costs and being unable to pay same was sent to the county jail for 20 days.

Samuel Lando, a Hebrew peddler, was arrested last night on the charge of stealing six pounds of lead pipe from the room at 108 West Superior street. Lando tried to buy the pipe of the boy who was in the room and on being refused carried it away when the occupants of the building were temporarily absent. He was released on his own recognizance to appear for a hearing in the municipal court at nine o'clock this morning.

The Duluth Sunday School association will hold its final meeting until September, this evening at Lester Park M. E. church, Grand avenue and Fifty-fourth avenue East. Supper will be served at 6 o'clock, followed by a social session and a musical program. Among the speakers will be Rev. Cleland, Rev. W. J. Lowrie and W. J. McCabe.

The infant child of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Felk, of Cloquet, died yesterday in St. Luke's hospital. The body will be taken home for burial.

Charles, the nine-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John Kicharske, of 31 East Eight street, died yesterday and will be buried today in the Polish cemetery.

The will of the late Samuel V. Gilbert was admitted to probate. No schedule has been filed, but the widow is made heir to all of the property.