

LAKE BREEZES.

Northland Printery. Torrey Building. Parlor Theater. Excellent bill. Vaudeville novelties.

Don't forget the ball given tonight by the B. of L. F. at the Armory. A special train will leave Second avenue east for West Duluth Superior, Old Town and intermediate points; immediately after the dance.

Parlor Theater. New stars. New specialties.

It is announced that on account of Lincoln's birthday the stamp window and general delivery department of the postoffice will be closed at 10 o'clock today. The money order department will not be open. There will be one mail delivery in the forenoon.

Israal Pierce a former resident of Duluth for twenty years and who had been engaged with his brother C. S. Pierce as tinner and a prominent member of the Federated Trades Assembly died yesterday at Albuquerque N. M., where he went three years ago suffering from tuberculosis.

Parlor Theater. Pleasing the crowds nightly.

L. D. Campbell & company yesterday closed a contract with the Lehigh Valley Coal company of Superior to build a portion of their new coal docks at Tower Bay slip. The work allotted to Campbell & Co., includes 360 feet of dock, trestle work and derricks.

Roman Slachiak, aged 12, was in municipal court yesterday on the charge of stealing a bible from Panton & White. He was allowed to go on promise that he would remain at home.

The circulating department of the public library will be closed all day today on account of Lincoln's birthday. The reading rooms will be open during the afternoon and evening.

Second citizenship papers were issued in the district court yesterday to Samuel M. Kaner, a former subject of the czar of Russia.

Amended articles of incorporation of the Mesaba Telephone company, increasing the capital stock of the concern to $100,000, were filed in the office of the register of deeds yesterday afternoon.

What is said to be one of the best musical entertainments of the season will be given by the University of Minnesota Glee and Mandolin club at the High school auditorium tonight. There are about thirty-five members of the company. Mandolin and guitar music and popular and college songs will be features of the program.

All of the offices in the court house will be closed today in honor of Lincoln's birthday anniversary.

A social session was held by the Fraternal Order of Eagles last night, which was attended by about 100 members. Mr. Whitaker, of the Bijou, gave two beautiful baritone selections, and two buck and wing dancers from the theater favored the lodge with a clever exhibition. Two sparring matches, in which local athletes were engaged, closed the entertainment.