

SUPERIOR BREVITIES.

See the new pictures at Lindquist's. Armstead's Laundry. Both phones. Call up.

Pianos—Kops Music Co. Superior, Wis. The management of the Superior Normal basketball team, now that the national board has decided that the game between Company I and Carpenter will not have to be played over again, has officially closed the season.

Yesterday marked the close of what is admitted by operators to have been the best pulpwood season in northern Wisconsin. Many cords have been shipped from Douglas county, the most of it going to the Appleton paper mills.

Degree of Pacahontas will give an old-fashioned dance next Monday night in Terminal hall.

A regular meeting of Circle No. 4 of the G. A. R., was held yesterday at the home of Mrs. N. M. Reynolds, Central Park.

The Rebeccas gave a dance last night in Odd Fellows' temple.

The funeral of George De Moe was held yesterday from Sacred Heart church. Interment at Calvary.

A meeting of the Consolidated Land company to consider the question of dissolution of the parent company will be held today.

At the Alpha Pi Epsilon rooms last night the Ethics club held a regular meeting. Prof. George B. Bergren of the Normal school conducted the meeting.

Three vagrants were given order to leave the city forthwith in municipal court yesterday.

The annual ball of railroad switchmen took place at Maryland hall last night. The hall was tastefully decorated and the attendance was large.

Peter Johnson was sentenced to forty-two days in the workhouse in municipal court yesterday on a charge of disorderly conduct.

Charles Lund, who was adjudged insane has been taken to the Mendota insane asylum. His enthusiasm in the coming election is said to be probably responsible for his mental condition.

The Lake Nebagamon sawmill began operations yesterday. A large force of men will be employed.

The Hebrew congregation has elected the following officers: President, A. Pomish; vice president, H. Sparberg; treasurer, S. Barkovech; secretary, P. Jaffa; trustee, Louis Lasky; directors, A. Averbrook, H. Taran, L. Weinstein, L. Harris, Louis Lasky.

Robert Young, who has been brought to St. Mary's hospital to be cared for while recovering from the results of a surgical operation, is seriously ill.

The painters and decorators and bosses got together yesterday for a conference, but did not accomplish anything.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry W. Gilbert have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Elizabeth Rutter Gilbert, to John Selby Frame of Fargo, N. D. The announcement was made at a dinner party given Saturday night by Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert to a number of intimate friends of the family. Miss Gilbert is one of the most popular young society woman of the city. Mr. Frame is a graduate of Princeton university and is prominent in the Dakota city.

The funeral of Charles Crone will take place this morning at 9:30 from St. Joseph's church. Rev Father Webber will officiate and members of Ojibwa tribe of Red Men, of which Mr. Crone was a member, will attend. Interment at Greenwood.

It has been stated that W. E. Pickering was a candidate to the assembly to succeed Irving L. Leuroot. Such is not the case. Mr. Pickering is contesting with Wallace Andrew for the honor of representing his district.

A large number of bicycles have been brought out during the past week. The streets, between the East and West ends are now dry enough to permit of their being used to good advantage.

Miss Thurza McCann, chief operator of the Peoples' Telephone company, is visiting friends in Minneapolis.