

SUPERIOR BREVITIES.

Have the latest platino carbons. Linquist.

Call up Baldwin's laundry. Both 'phones.

All lady members of Superior Counsel 76, Modern Samaritans are requested to be present Monday evening. Business of importance.

Dr. W. J. Sullivan of Billings Park leaves today for a two weeks' visit in Detroit.

The Nordon Male choir will give an excursion to Zenith park today.

The Billings Park Four Hundred club gave Mrs. Hugh Chambers a pleasant surprise Friday night.

N. L. Bendz will leave today for St. Louis where he will visit the fair and assist in the organization of a press association of the Swedish editors of the country.

A number of young women friends of Miss Grace Hines gave her a china shower at her residence on Twelfth street Thursday night.

Judge F. S. Parker is spending a few days at his farm.

A. J. Zimmerman, of Wadena, Minn., is in the city for a few days' visit.

Major A. J. Eaton returned yesterday from Madison where he has been attending the reunion of the G. A. R.

Miss Genevieve Eaton who has been attending the state university accompanied him home.

Franklin Wedge has returned from Waukesha where he has been visiting for the past two weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. V. E. McCaskill left last night for a visit in Missouri.

Miss Belle Keyes left yesterday to visit in Pennsylvania.

Miss Mary Mannering of Toronto is visiting Miss Jessie Maxwell of Grand avenue.

Miss Earl Grady, of Joliet, Ill., is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Dear, East End.

Professor E. W. Walker and S. A. Lynch are at Solon Springs enjoying a fishing trip.

Miss May Whitney has returned from Grand Forks where she has been teaching school.

The Ladies' society of the Pilgrim Congregational church will meet next Wednesday at the home of Mrs. E. Strothman, Sixteenth street.

Jim Burwick and Al Clark, the railroad evangelists will conduct services today at the Thompson Avenue M. E. church.

The teachers of the Peter Cooper school were entertained Friday afternoon by Principal Boots.

The Bryant Alumni association entertained the graduating class of 1904 with a lawn social Friday night.

Misses Miller, Duff and Roberts of the Nelson Dewey school, were tendered a surprise in the way of dainty lunches by the pupils of their respective rooms on Wednesday and Thursday evenings.

Mrs. Henry Gray, of Anoka, has returned home after a two weeks' visit at the East End.

John A. McCormick has returned from the Wisconsin university. He will spend his vacation in Superior, leaving August 1 to enter the law office of Miller, Noyes and Miller in Milwaukee.

A lawn social will be given Wednesday evening at Mrs. Lewis', 1105 Hammond avenue, by the Ladies' Aid society of the Hammond avenue Presbyterian church. Adults 10c, children 5c, unless with parents. If raining it will be postponed until further notice. Miss Grace Maloy goes to St. Paul tonight.

Fred Thompson of the East End post office has returned from a business trip to Milwaukee.

Miss Florence Corkey leaves next week for a visit at Eveleth.

Miss Jessie Davis will spend the summer in Montana.

Prin. Shong of the Nelson Dewey school will leave in a few days for the N. E. A. meeting at St. Louis.

F. M. Ball, principal of the Blaine grades who has resigned his position in order to take a post graduate course in the Chicago university, was tendered a surprise party by the pupils and teachers of the school Friday afternoon.

A pleasant feature of a very enjoyable afternoon was the presentation to Mr. Ball of a handsome signet ring and set of books.

The following have been granted marriage licenses by the county clerk: William Westerville and Mary Keigas; M. H. Pettit, Minneapolis, and Annetta McGee, Superior; John W. McCormick and Katherine A. Ratigan of Gordon.

Mrs. Williams, of Ashland, is in the city visiting her daughter, Miss Nellie Williams who graduated from the normal school on Thursday last.

Miss Alice Bacchus, of Ironwood, Mich., returned to her home yesterday after attending the local normal for the past year.

Miss Bettie C. Peterson, a graduate of the normal 1904, returned to her home in Bessemer, Mich., yesterday.

M. McKay left for Chicago via the Great Northern.

The case of H. Bloom against Walter Perkins in municipal court was adjourned until the 24th yesterday. The plaintiff charged the defendant with striking him a blow over the heart without provocation.

Lyel Cronin was in municipal court on the charge of hitting B. H. Edelstein with a brick. Cronin proved an alibi and was dismissed. Edelstein claimed that while passing the Opera house he was struck by a brick thrown by one of several boys who were loitering in that vicinity.