

FINE CLOTHING AT UNHEARD OF PRICES

D. Casmir Makes Unusual Offer to the People of Duluth.

D. Casmir, formerly manager of the Brockton Shoe Co., and who purchased the entire stock of the Eagle Clothing Co., from B. J. Cook & Bros., at 58 cents on the dollar, will commence this morning to place it on sale at unheard of prices. It is Mr. Casmir's intention to make extensive improvements in the store and he is anxious to make a clean sweep of the present stock. In order to do this he has made enormous price concessions. Thousands of dollars worth of fine clothing will go regardless of price or quality. The line includes men's furnishings, boots shoes and rubbers. It will be a chance of a lifetime for those in need of wearing apparel. All finishing goods at half and even less than one-half. Sale commences at 9 o'clock this morning.
