

TOWER

BY A STAFF CORRESPONDENT.

TOWER, Minn., Jan. 23.—Cap. Anderson of the Stevenson mine is in the city.

John Owen, of Hibbing, arrived in the city Friday evening.

Mrs. Carl Gilbert, of Duluth, is in the city visiting friends.

Miss Nellie Westaway, of Duluth, is in the city this week visiting her sister, Miss Jeanette Westaway.

John Hicky transacted business in the Zenith city Thursday.

George Mason, of Duluth, called on the local trade Tuesday.

Miss Polkinhorn, of Ely, is in the city the guest of Miss Ada Trippett.

John Pearson and Lyndon Burgess were in Duluth Wednesday.

Mrs. W. J. Jalley entertained a few friends at her home on Second street Saturday evening.

R. Everett, who is attending school in St. Paul, visited friends in the city this week.

The body of J. J. Morton, who was killed at the Stevenson mine Wednesday afternoon, was brought to the city Friday evening and was interred at Lakeview cemetery Saturday morning. The funeral was under the auspices of the local Masonic lodge.

Albert Kitto transacted business in Duluth the first of the week.

Miss Ada Tippet visited friends in Ely Tuesday and Wednesday.

J. N. Burgess attended to business matters in St. Paul the first of the week.

Elmer Harrison, of Hibbing, is in the city visiting friends.

Miss Mayme Murphy and Mrs. William Voss visited with Ely friends Tuesday.

George Vivlan was in St. Paul this week, attending the Masonic grand lodge. He went as a delegate.

Lute Engels, a former Towerite, who has been at Winnipeg the past few months, returned to the city Thursday.

Mrs. A. A. Talle and daughter left for Duluth Saturday, where Mrs. Talle goes to consult an oculist.

P. Schaeffer, of Ely, called on his Tower friends Wednesday.

The little daughter of George F. Clark died Tuesday after a few days' illness with pneumonia. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, Rev. Stone officiating.

Ferd Kolb, of Pittsburg, Pa., was in the city a few days this week visiting friends. Mr. Kolb left Friday afternoon for Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Neil Berger, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. T. Wheeler for the past week, returned to their home at Kochiching Friday morning.

The women of St. Mary's Guild will serve lunch at the home of Mrs. W. H. McQuade Thursday afternoon.

R. E. Jones, of Two Harbors, was in the city Tuesday.

The Horace K. Turner art exhibit, which is under the auspices of the public school, is meeting with splendid success. The pictures are without doubt the finest ever exhibited in the city and the public is showing its appreciation by liberally patronizing the exhibits.

Messrs. Either and Drew of Hibbing, are in the city, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Jeffery.

Mrs. E. J. Aitkens, of Two Harbors, came up Saturday to spend a few days with her husband who is employed at the D. & I. R. R. depot.

Guy O. Beardsley died at the Tower hospital Monday afternoon of pneumonia. His mother, Mrs. M. Beardsley, and a brother, George Beardsley of Sioux City, Iowa, arrived in the city Wednesday and accompanied the remains to Portage, Wis., for burial.

Charlie Parker, of Duluth, was in the city Wednesday looking after his local trade.

Ben Horwitz, of Ely, was in the city Tuesday, a guest of Mr. and Mrs. D. Bentson.