

EVELETH IN BRIEF.

RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE,
EVELETH, OCT. 26—

Attorney Louls D. Davis returned last evening with his bride, formerly Miss Marion Gertrude Miller of Minneapolis. They were students together at the University of Minnesota and their marriage took place on Oct. 18 at Minneapolis, Rev. G. S. Rollins officiating.

The jury empaneled by Deputy Coroner J. C. Poole yesterday afternoon found that Henry Linna came to his death on the evening of Oct. 21 by being run over by a stripping train at the Adams mine.

Dr. W. C. More returned last night from Milwaukee, where he had been called by the death of his father-in-law, Alton Streeter. Mr. Streeter was 71 years of age.

Isadore Dorf returned Monday after a week's vacation in Duluth.

Bids for the construction of the city water plant are to be opened Friday night at a special meeting of the city council.