

FORMER SUPERIOR MAN ACCUSED OF FORGERY

Martin Edelstein, formerly proprietor of a furniture store in this city, has been arrested in St. Paul on a charge of forgery. Edelstein is charged with having made false statements in bankruptcy proceedings.

While living in Superior Edelstein was arrested on a charge of having set on fire a house belonging to T. J. Solon. The case against him was subsequently dismissed.

William Schlosberg, the grocer, has removed from 627 John avenue to his new store, at 511-513 Tower avenue, Masonic block. He has a fine new stock of groceries at reasonable prices and solicits the patronage of the people.
