

CIGAR MAN FILES BANKRUPTCY PAPERS

Philip H. Levy Fixes His Liabilities at $2,180; Assets at $800.

Philip H. Levy, who has been operating the St. Louis Hotel cigar and news stand, yesterday filed a voluntary petition in bankruptcy in the office of the clerk of the United States court giving his liabilities as $2,180.01 and fixing his assets as $800.00, $450 of which he claims as exempt.

The petitioner's liabilities are principally for merchandise purchased, money borrowed and physicians' services. The chief creditors are cigar and tobacco firms of Duluth and the Twin Cities.

In the list of assets is given the item of stock on hand and fixtures, placed at $340; household goods $450; and bills due $25.60.

The matter will be referred to William O. Pealer, referee in bankruptcy.
