

HELEN KARON CASE MAY BE REOPENED

Treasury Department Expected to Take Action to Settle
Status In Collector's Office.

NEWS TRIBUNE BUREAU,
POSTAL BUILDING,

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 14.—

Representative Jenkins is endeavoring to have the case of Miss Helen Karon, until recently a stenographer in the office of the deputy collector of customs at Superior, reopened.

It was upon the complaint of Deputy Collector Thomas H. Mills that she was dismissed and her friends do not think that she has received fair treatment.

It is expected that a special agent of the treasury department will be sent to investigate the matter and upon his report the secretary of the treasury will take action to determine the case.
