

SOCIETY

Mr. and Mrs. George Hudnall were host and hostess at a pleasant cabin supper Wednesday evening at Wild Rose lodge. Their niece, Miss Jessie Quinn, of Idaho, was the guest of honor. The invited guests were Mrs. S. K. Duff, Misses Ella Duff, May Tyler, Grace Clark, Annie Rooney, Cass Lake; Mabel Bishoff, Amy Clark, Messrs. Sam Duff, John Harrider, Hardaman Duff, John McQuarrie, William Hadlam and Ernest McQuarrie.

The Girls' Sewing club were the guests of Miss Lucile Waterman Saturday afternoon.

Miss Belle Scott was hostess at a unique waffle supper Wednesday evening. Covers were laid for Misses Marie Long, Florence Titus, Leslie Bradshaw, Claire Abraham, Messrs. Highland Ground, Clarence Grace, John Bradshaw and Harry Grace.

Mrs. T. H. Wolford entertained a number of friends at a dainty afternoon tea Thursday. The lunch tables were prettily decorated with carnations. Mrs. Wolford was assisted by her daughters, the Misses Maud, Blanche and Amy Wolford. The amusements were symbolic of the near approach of the Fourth of July. Conundrums, the answers to which were names of some articles of celebration, were placed upon dainty cards upon which Japanese lanterns, flags and cannons were painted. Mrs. Stewart was the prize winner. The guests were Mesdames E. A. Whitney, J. H. Robb and mother, Mrs. Pierce, R. Webb, Saylor, O. A. Britton and mother, Mrs. Horton, of Minneapolis, and sister, Mrs. Stewart, C. R. Heydon and mother, Mrs. Nimocks, of La Crosse, F. Booth, W. E. Pickering and mother, Mrs. H. Gregg, of Lake Mills, Iowa, and N. S. Bowers.

Miss Marion Vernain was the honored guest of Mrs. C. P. White Thursday afternoon. A pleasant afternoon was spent at bid euchre at which Miss Gertrude Darlington and Mrs. Delano Smith won the prizes.

Several Superior women were the guests of Mrs. J. P. Sharp, Duluth, at luncheon Monday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Helmbaugh, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Gallagher and Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Orchard are camping at the Booth cottage at Oatka beach.

Mrs. Howard Thomas and Mrs. C. P. White won the favors at the meeting of the Whist club Wednesday with Mrs. A. J. Perrin next week.

The camping party who have been the guests of Miss Fern Nichols at Solon Springs, returned home Monday much tanned and full of enthusiasm for the splendid time which they had enjoyed. Those present were Misses Helen Robb, Leonore Duff, Jessie Roberts, Margery Burhans, Marie Donalds, Katharine Leader, Bessie DeLong, Rhea Keough, Francis Smith and Mildred Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Rudd and Mr. and Mrs. E. Caff are spending a few days at the George Reed cottage at Lake Nebagamon.

Miss Annie Rooney of Cass Lake has been the guest of Miss Mae Tyler for the past week.

Mrs. McCord and daughter, Ethel, are visiting in Eau Claire.

Mrs. John McRae and daughter, Janice, who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Waterman, left Wednesday for Portland, where they will reside in the future.

Miss Lucy Lockwood was another June bride. Her wedding to William LeBree occurred Wednesday evening at the home of her mother, Mrs. H. H. Lockwood, 1218 Ogden avenue. Miss Lockwood was simply but prettily attired in white mousseline de soie and carried a large bridal bouquet. She was attended by Miss Maud Welty while the groom was attended by his brother, Oliver LeBree. Two dainty little flower girls also waited upon the bride. The house was charmingly decorated with cherry blossoms.

A jolly party of young people are camping at Camp "Come-in-ski" on Minnesota Point, with Miss Sadie Reeves as chaperone. It consists of Miss Minnie Barsness, Miss Grand, Misses George and Louise Barsness. On Wednesday evening the party entertained at dinner after which the merry party repaired to the pavilion and enjoyed the evening's fun. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. Archibald McKay, Miss Jean Brown, Messrs. W. V. Guard, S. Turney, and E. Hawarden.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Reed entertained at dinner Friday evening for Rev. and Mrs. Hannum. Covers were laid for Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Pease, Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Hannum, Miss, Mr. and Mrs. Wolford T. Lewis, of Duluth, and Mrs. Reed.

Miss Cora Leader is visiting friends in Galena, Ill.

The Misses Edith and Mae Hunter left this week for Deerwood, where they will pass the summer.

Miss Elinor Russell has gone to Madison, where she will join a party of Psi Psi Sorority girls in a trip to the World's fair.

Miss Esther Moran, of West Sixth street, left this week for Galena, Ill., where she will visit during the summer.

Mrs. L. W. Gates, of Central Park, is entertaining the Misses Susan and Harriet Lane, of Keene, N. H.

Miss Ida C. Marcy, who has been attending Wellesly college during the past year, is home for the summer.

Miss Bessie Bennett is visiting in Galena, Ill.

One of the launching parties of the week was a jolly crowd of young people who went to Fond du Lac Wednesday on the Whitney and returning, danced at Oatka, for a few hours. They were: Misses Clara Briggs, Sylvia Vane, Nora Hendricks, Pearl Lindsay, Belle McCabe, Violet Burke, Delia McDunnig, Nell Casey, Drussilla Kennedy, Thursa McCann, Eleanor Swanby, Kathryn Stark, Messrs. Duff, McCann C. Ritter, H. Fuller, J. O'Neill, F. Dolan, R. Johnson, Flynn, F. George, W. O'Neill, W. Murphy, J. Duce.

The following clipping is taken from the Sunday Inquirer, of Owensboro, Ky.

"Miss Emeline Ward Payne was married to Mr. William Robert Smith of Superior, Wis., at 10 o'clock Wednesday morning at Trinity Episcopal church by Rev. W. K. Marshall, rector of the church. It was one of the most beautiful weddings of the season and was solemnized before a large number of friends. The decorations were beautiful, the church being artistically arranged with an assortment of fragrant and pretty flowers. The bride entered the church to the strains of Lohengrin, played by Prof. Quigley. She was dressed in white crepe de chine over white taffeta and chiffon trimmed in purple and hand made lace and tulle veil. Miss Ella Chapman, of Henderson, was the bride's only attendant. She wore white point de esprit over pink taffeta and wore a large picture hat of pink tulle and carried a bouquet of white and pink sweet peas. J. Bert Riley was best man and the ushers were Messrs. E. Pettit Cox, William Reno, Levy Fowlkes, and Gus Slaughter. Mr. and Mrs. Smith left on the noon train for St. Louis and the west. They will be gone until August 1, after which they will be at home at 327 West Fifth street, Superior, Wis.

"At the depot a large number assembled to bid the couple farewell, and the jolly crowd showered rice upon them as they boarded the train. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ward Payne, of Walnut street. She is a young woman highly respected by all who know her, and her friends are numbered by her acquaintances. Mr. Smith is a prominent young business man of Superior, and is known by a large number in this city, having been here several times."

Another dainty little affair was the wedding of Miss Laura Yates and Mr. H. Wentzel which occurred at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Yates, of 2612 Hughtit avenue, Wednesday evening. A profusion of flowers made the home beautiful and the room in which the ceremony was performed was transformed into a bower of carnations and ground pine. The bride wore a beautiful dress of cream crepe de chene over silk trimmed with Mexican braid, and carried a large bunch of lillies of the valley and roses. Miss Olive Yates, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid, with T. T. DeMars as groomsmen. Little Miss Mary Yates lent her able assistance as fairy on the stairs while Miss Lulu Yates and Lucille Ekstrand were the little ribbon girls. A dainty wedding supper was served to the guests immediately following the conclusion of the ceremony. The dining room was tastefully decorated with white ribbons and white carnations. Miss Virginia Pierce, Miss Zora Fiant, Miss Mabel Cowie and Miss Agnes Ekstrand assisted in serving.

At high noon Wednesday Miss Ella Penfound and Mr. Simon Safford were united in marriage at the home of the bride's parents, 2626 Tower avenue. Miss Anna Penfound, sister of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and Jesse Patrick performed the duty of best man.

known in this city and their many friends join them in wishing them every good fortune. Mr. and Mrs. Safford left soon after the ceremony to spend their honeymoon in St. Paul, St. Louis, Lookout mountain and other southern points.

Still another wedding occurred on Wednesday, that of Miss Margaret F. Bush, of Archison, Kansas, and Robert C. Pringle, of Willoughby, Ohio. The wedding took place at the home of Rev. A. B. Nichols, who officiated.

On Tuesday evening Miss Edith Karon became the wife of John Kenigsberg, of Duluth. The wedding ceremony was performed at the home of the bride's parents which was tastefully decorated in honor of the occasion. The bride was dressed in a gown of cream lace trimmed with panne velvet over taffeta. She carried a large bunch of bridal roses, and wore a bridal veil with lillies of the valley.

Miss Karon entered the room on the arm of her father, S. Karon. Miss Helen Karon as bridesmaid attended her sister, and Louis Zaik of Duluth acted as best man. After the ceremony the friends of the bride and groom enjoyed a wedding dinner, after which Mr. and Mrs. Kenigsberg left for an extended wedding trip to the World's fair. Among the Superior guests who were present at the wedding were:

Mr. and Mrs. E. Siegel, Mr. and Mrs. H. Mark, Miss Sarah Mark, Miss Rose Cohen, Messrs. Julius Cohen, Sam Cohen, B. Cohen, Isadore Cohen. From out of the city the following guests were present: Misses Sadie and May Mark, St. Paul; Etta and Esther Codden, St. Paul; Mr. and Mrs. Shapiro, Mr. and Mrs. Golden, Mr. and Mrs. B. Kaner, Mr. and Mrs. Somerheld, Mr. and Mrs. Bloom, Mr. and Mrs. Sher, M., and Mrs. Mark Britz, Messrs. Max Codden, Cloquet; N. Rochstein, Chicago, Milton Rosenberger, E. Helpern and Ben Shapiro, of Duluth.

June has been rightly named the month of brides and this year has proved to be no exception to the rule, for never have the wedding bells rung more merrily or more frequently than they have this year. No less than fifteen happy couples have linked their fortunes together and entered the holy bonds of matrimony in this city during the past month.

A dainty little luncheon was served by Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Copp at their home in Duluth Monday evening to a number of Superior people who gathered in honor of Miss Gertrude Ord of this city and F. E. Yokum. Covers were laid for Mrs. F. E. Yokum, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Culp, Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Copp, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. McKenney, of Osseo, Wis., Mr. and Mrs. William Smith, Miss Helen Chisholm, of Winnipeg, Miss Audrie Welty, Miss Bessie Knapp, of Oshkosh, Miss Ethel Ord, Miss Agnes McClood, Miss Gertrude Ord, Messrs. H. A. Moss and George Ord.

Both of the young people are well.