

SELLING OUT

321 WEST SUPERIOR ST.

NOTICE!

To give out-of-town people an equal show and those that are not able to do their shopping during the day this store will be open evenings until 9 p. m. during this sale.

Beginning today, August 4th. Dave Casmir will place his entire stock of clothing, furnishing goods and shoes at and below cost.

I have cut the prices on every article in the store to the very quick, not one garment reserved. Everything in this store must be sold by September 20th. If you fail to attend this sale you will miss the greatest sacrifice sale ever held in Duluth, or anywhere in the country.

FREE!

The first three days of this great selling out sale I will give away free of charge 50 dozen of Men's Straw Hats, worth up to $1.00. Come early.

EAGLE CLOTHING & SHOE HOUSE,
321 W. Superior St. Duluth.

A black and white portrait of a man, David C. Casmir, shown in profile facing left. He is wearing a dark suit jacket, a white shirt, and a dark bow tie. The portrait is enclosed in an ornate, oval-shaped frame decorated with floral and scrollwork patterns. The entire advertisement is framed by a decorative border consisting of a series of small circles.

DAVID C. CASMIR,
Proprietor of Eagle Clothing and Shoe House.

$35 to $55
Tailored Suits
at $10.75 today

But 23 suits in the lot to go at this final clean-up figure—hardly the price of the trimmings and linings—but there's no counting of cost now. The most reliable fabrics in desirable colorings and handsomely tailored suits, that cost three and four times this clearance price. Among the lot are some 18 size dresses for misses' wear, desirable styles, which sell regularly at $35 and $40. Very appropriate and practical for fall school wear. An early visit will insure you first choice. They can't last long.
