

SUPERIOR BREVITIES.

5 :

Sims Coal Co., 1118½ Tower ave.

H. W. Battin, who has been superintendent of the Northern Wisconsin division of the Northwestern road for some time, has resigned his position with that road. W. E. Morse, of the Galena division has been appointed to take Mr. Battin's place.

The next annual convention of the Wisconsin Master horseshoers will be held in La Crosse. The state has 40 local unions with a membership of 437.

After carefully inspecting and examining Hughitt avenue, the board of public works will meet today and consider the subject of accepting or rejecting the job. Contractor Dahl has lately been correcting certain discrepancies and it is believed his work will be accepted by the board.

Frank Smith was taken to Leslie hospital yesterday with a broken arm, the result of a large piece of coal falling on him while he was at work on the dock.

A loop-the-gap has been constructed in the vicinity of the Eighteenth street fire hall where John Young performs the leaping feat.

Rev. George H. Wade, pastor of the A. M. E. church, Central Park, last night preached his farewell sermon. Rev. Wade expects to leave the city this week.

The library board is scheduled to meet tonight to elect a successor to Assistant Librarian Devere, who has tendered her resignation.

At the First M. E. church last night, Miss Lois Russell, of Eau Claire, delivered an address. Miss Russell is state lecturer for the Women's Christian Temperance union.

After the Sunday evening service last night, the members of St. Alban's Episcopal church held an adjourned business session and considered several important business matters.

John A. Johnson, Billings Park, is the first one to publicly announce himself as a candidate for the nomination on the Republican ticket for county clerk.

Lloyd Hoover, of Crystal Falls, is visiting friends in Superior.

Lieut. W. H. Smith, of Cloquet, spent Sunday in Superior.

Sigmund Abraham of Minneapolis, is the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Abraham, Sixteenth street.