

HIBBING LODGES NAME OFFICERS

Fraternal Orders of Range Town Hold Annual Election.

RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE,
HIBBING, JAN. 7.—

The Royal Neighbors and Modern Woodmen of America lodges held a joint installation of officers in Central hall Tuesday evening, at which a large number of lodge members and their friends were present. After the installation of the newly-elected officers of the Royal Neighbors, Mrs. O. W. Randall was presented with a beautiful silver chocolate set. Mrs. Randall was the presiding officer during the past year. Lunch was served after which dancing was inaugurated. A most enjoyable evening resulted.

The local lodges of Sir Knight Maccabees and Lady Maccabees will hold a joint installation of newly-elected officers at Close's hall, on Wednesday evening, January 18; and have invited a few guests for the occasion. Following the ceremony a dancing program during which refreshments will be served, Mrs. G. O. Geiser will install the Lady Maccabee officers.

The Lady Maccabees are arranging to hold a Martha Washington party on February 22.

The newly-elected officers of Hibbing lodge No. 270, Ancient Order of United Workmen, are: John Greuling, past master workman; Fred B. Freeman, master workman; Andrew Anderson, foreman; Charles L. Hardin, overseer; John McDowell, recorder; William A. Williamson, financier; Edward Aura, receiver; Daniel Kanipes, guide; Emil Anderson, inside watch; Jacob Lenz, outside watch; John J. Greuling, representative to grand lodge; Dr. G. N. Butchart, local medical examiner.

Officers of Friendship lodge No. 201, Degree of Honor, are: Myrtle C. Freeman, past chief of honor; Amelia Kanipes, chief of honor; May F. Petty, lady of honor; Angeline Greuling, chief of ceremonies; Louis M. Tatro, recorder, Margaret McDoyell, financier; Mary Kanipes, receiver; Violet Kanipes, usher; Susan Pangles, inside watch; Artemus C. Copp, outer watch; Myrtle C. Freeman, representative to grand lodge.

Hibbing Aerie, No. 221, Fraternal Order of Eagles, recently had its annual election of officers, with the following result: J. F. Twitchell, president; W. J. Ryan, chaplain; Martin Imbertson, conductor; Harry Witz, secretary; Joseph Wakeley, inside guard.