

HAPPY AFFAIR AT HIBBING

Prominent Couple Is Married With Elaborate Jewish Ceremonies.

RANGE BUREAU OF THE NEWS TRIBUNE.

HIBBING, JAN. 9.—

No society event in months has exceeded in brilliancy the Jewish gathering at Close's hall last night, when Miss Belle Amle Woolfan, of Hibbing, was married according to the ancient rites of the Hebrew religion, to Samuel Seigel, of Eveleth.

The guests began to arrive at 5 o'clock but it was not until about 6 o'clock that the orchestra struck up the wedding march to which the groom and his attendants entered the auditorium, and with much ceremony took their positions under the canopy. Then followed the bridal party, led by little Miss Bessie Osherman, who carried a pillow upon which lay the wedding ring. The bride was led under the canopy facing the groom, where the solemn ceremony was performed by Rabbi Bloom of Superior, assisted by Rabbi C. B. Groman of Chisholm.

Mrs. Annie Seigel, mother of the groom, was the matron of honor, and E. S. Woolfan attended his daughter. The maid of honor was Miss Mollie Cohen; the bridesmaid, Miss Fannie Woolfan, the bride's sister. The best man was H. Bloom and the groomsmen Messrs. Miney and Abe Woolfan. The bride was attired in white and wore a flowing veil.

After the ceremony and congratulations, the doors of the banquet room were thrown open and the guests invited to the wedding feast, followed by dancing.

The following morning Mr. and Mrs. Seigel departed on a wedding trip to St. Paul and Minneapolis and upon their return to the range will reside at Eveleth, where Mr. Seigel is engaged in business.

Until recently both parties were residents of Hibbing. The bride is the accomplished daughter of E. S. Woolfan, and the groom conducted a furniture store in the O'Rourke building until August of this year, when he removed his stock to Eveleth. Beautiful and expensive presents in great numbers were showered upon the bride and numerous congratulatory telegrams were received from friends who were unable to be present.

The wedding guests were as follows: Eveleth—Mr. and Mrs. D. Simon, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nicholson, Mrs. Seigel, Mike, John and L. Seigel, Isadore Simon, Jr., and Ben M. Pippman and M. Reet. Chisholm—Mr. and Mrs. B. Karon, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Karon and Misses Rose, Bessie and Lillian Karon; Mr. and Mrs. Levitt, Mose Shiparo, Dora Bear, J. Roman, Mary and Herbert Stolberg. Buhl—Mr. and Mrs. Ike Lewis and family. Virginia—Mr. and Mrs. J. Lindeke, Mr. and Mrs. B. Milowitz and Mrs. L. Kohen, Mr. and Mrs. Herman Nathanson, Miss Cella Milowitz, B. Gordon and M. Seigel. Superior—Mr. and Mrs. Osherman, Messrs. S. Karon, H. Bloom, William Woolfan, Himan Bloom, Misses Mollie Cohen, Lizzie Strong and McCullom. Also Mr. and Mrs. J. Bernstein of Minneapolis, and Ben Karon of Stevenson. Hibbing—Messrs. and Mesdames Chas. Hallock, M. S. Greenblatt, Harry Witz, Dave Elias, Max Rogalsky, Markel and Lurvitz; Messrs. William Kitz, Peter Karon, Daniel Mark; Mrs. Jacob Kitz. Also the following guests of the Christian faith: Messrs and Mesdames Dr. C. N. Butchart, P. Wring, Judge Brady, J. F. Nelson and A. E. Pfremmer; Mrs. J. M. Smith; Messrs. J. H. Nelson, Thomas York, Dunning; Mrs. Close, Mrs. J. A. Healey, Mrs. Eaton.