

MASQUE BALL

A GREAT SUCCESS

Probably the largest crowd of the season attended the masquerade given by Flanten's Third Regiment band at the Armory last night. It was estimated that at one time fully 300 couples were dancing. All the available seats in the galleries were filled and many of the spectators were compelled to stand.

Most of the costumes were tasty in design, particularly the couple in green who represented Ireland. They answered to the names of John Gunderson and Kathleen Frye, and were awarded the principal prize of the evening. Other prizes were as follows:

Most grotesque couple, Mrs. Anthony Gleason and Walter Johnson; best group, the Little German Band, Frank Schubinsky, Franz Henrick, Charles Kugler, John Bierhalter, Charles Goder, Paul Brown, E. Davis; second best group, Three Old Maids, J. Miller, Bert Glazer, F. Begenta; third best group, Indians, Robert Ralsch, Clem Repensky, Irene Edelson, Mabel Hall; most grotesque couple, cake walk, Emil and Mrs. Stravoskey; second best grotesque couple, colored couple, Mr. and Miss Birnher; best representation of Happy Hooligan, Carl Braney and Lillian Dalton. Other prizes were awarded to Miss May Connors, Lulu Monte and Mrs. Connelly and Fred Shay as cake walkers.

Funds derived from the dance will be devoted to defraying the expenses of the band to the inauguration of President Roosevelt at Washington.
