

HOME IN FLAMES; FAMILY IS SAVED

---

E. H. Edelstein, Wife and Five Children Have Narrow Escape From Death.

---

E. H. Edelstein, his wife and five children, were rescued with difficulty from their burning home, 205 John street, shortly before 1 o'clock this morning. The house and household goods were destroyed. The loss is estimated at $600.

A pedestrian hurrying along John street was the first to discover the fire. Smoke and flames were bursting from the roof and after alarming the family he turned in an alarm.

Edelstein and his wife were aroused and rushed to save their children. The little ones appeared partially overcome by smoke and were rescued with difficulty.

A defective chimney is blamed for the fire.

---