

IMPENDING FINES BRING OUT CASH

Dealers Arraigned For Doing Business Without License Secure Papers.

Charged with dealing in second hand goods without a license ten proprietors of second hand stores were arraigned in municipal court yesterday and pleaded guilty to the charge. Judge Parker deferred sentence to give them a chance to enlist the services of City Clerk Hobe in preparing the necessary license for which a fee of $5 is charged. On being equipped with the documents the bunch returned to the judge's office when they were allowed to go without being subjected to a fine. Detective Dill, who made the arrests said:

"We have trouble with the second hand dealers every year in getting them to take out their licenses. I notified the dealers June 1, when the license was due and several times since, but they paid no attention to the warning, so we concluded to swear out warrants for their arrest."

The following proprietors took out licenses yesterday after their arrest: S. Karon, Sam Weiner, Roy Edelstein, S. Helstein, H. Kall, Sam Harris, P. Handlovsky, S. Popkins, Sam Rosenbloom, and S. Barklousky.
