

on his double brick block on West Chestnut street in the early spring.

Mrs. Allen, one of the organizers of the Woman's Home Missionary society of the M. E. church, delivered a lecture at the First M. E. church in this city on Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Coons returned from a visit to their former home at Crystal Falls, Mich., where they had been called by a telegram announcing the death of Mrs. Coons' father.

Editor James A. Field, of the Northland Farmer at Ashawa, was in the city Tuesday.

Ed Olson, president of the village of McKinley, looked after business matters in the city the first of the week.

In the trial of the case of the state vs. Joseph Karl, arrested on complaint of deputy game warden James Falk, of Eveleth, on the charge of having venison in his possession out of season, the complainant failed to bring convincing proof and the defendant was released. Mr. Falk avers that he found venison hanging in the market of the defendant after Dec. 31, but he failed in his duty and thwarted his opportunity of proving his case by not confiscating the meat, which was not in evidence at the trial of the case.

A musical and literary entertainment at the Fay Opera on Friday evening next under the direction of Miss Josephine Sterle, will be for the benefit of the church of Our Lady of Lourdes. Many of the more talented of local musicians will take part in the program, which promises a treat for attendants.

Mark Eddy and A. Hawkinson have returned from a trip to St. Paul, where they were attendants at the meeting of the Anglo-Saxon Mining company on Tuesday.

Denny Martin had the misfortune to slip while alighting from a cutter on Friday, falling in such a manner as to break his right leg.

John Stordahl, a former resident of the city, but who with his family has been living upon a valuable homestead in the Rice River valley, mourns the death of his wife. The remains were brought to the city Wednesday, being interred in the Virginia cemetery.

Luther Hanson left Monday for St. Peter, where he attends Gustavus Adolphus college. His father, Rev. P. O. Hanson, accompanied him as far as Duluth.

Albert Olson, traveling auditor of the Figer Brewing company, is up from Duluth today. Mr. Olson will resume work

VIRGINIA BREVITIES.

RANGE BUREAU OF THE NEWS TRIBUNE.

VIRGINIA, JAN. 14.—Alex King, a graduate of the Virginia High school who has been employed at the Fayal laboratory for several months past, has resigned his position with the Fayal company and left on Wednesday for Pueblo, Colorado, where he enters the employ of the Colorado Fuel & Iron company.

Among Virginians who were in attendance at the wedding of S. J. Seigel, of Eveleth, to Miss Amie Belle Woolfram, of Hibbing, at Close's hall, Hibbing, on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Nathanson, Mr. and Mrs. B. Milavetz, Mr. and Mrs. H. Lindeke, Mrs. L. Cohen, Miss Celia Milavetz, Ben Gordon and M. Seigel.

C. M. Burnett, former roadmaster on the D. M. & N. system but now engaged in running an employment office in Duluth, was in the city on Wednesday interviewing local employers of labor relative to their needs. During his visit Mr. Burnett placed a number of men at the local mills and lumber camps.

City Attorney Polrier attended to business matters at Duluth during the week.

General Manager Shepard, of the Corrigan-McKinney mining interests, was in the city during the week looking after matters at the Commodore, which property is being pumped out preparatory to an active season. In speaking of the outlook for the range for the coming season Mr. Shepard stated in his estimation the coming year would see the greatest amount of ore forwarded ever shipped in a season from the Lake Superior ranges, and that the era of prosperity would continue for several years.

James Hunter, who has charge of the drill work for the Great Northern company, was in the city the first of the week looking after interests to the northwest of the city, where his company runs drills on section 5, 53-17, a large body of ore having been proven during the past several months on the lands embraced in this option.

Henry J. Seigel will be a member of the petit jury panel for the January term.

Cashier Mick, of the Miners and Merchants Bank at Buhl, was a visitor to the city Tuesday evening.