RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE
EVELETH, OCT. 24.—

A jolly stage party occurred last night at the home of George W. Mulligan as an anniversary surprise on Dr. J. V. Johnson. The party was composed of Dr. E. K. Medler, Sam Shapiro, Leo Shapiro, Arthur Talboys, D. P. McIntyre, Ed Hatch, R. G. Dillaway, Joseph Stone, Gust Peterson, John Pasternacki, Wallace D'Aust and Mr. Mulligan, who gathered at the house and then phoned down to the doctor's office that he was wanted and should come home. Upon his arrival he was greeted with "Cheer, Cheer, the Gang's All Here" and the rest. Supper had been prepared by Mrs. Mulligan, sister of Dr. Johnson. The doctor was presented with two steins to add to his already large collection.
