

SPARTA.

RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE
SPARTA, OCT. 28.—

Charles Schaeffer, traveling passenger agent of the D. S. S. & A. Ry., was a Sparta visitor yesterday.

The internal revenue inspector for this district called on the saloon keepers here yesterday.

Sam Rubenstein and Miss Ethel Seave attended the ball at Eveleth last evening given for the benefit of the Jewish church.

A. J. Perrin, general agent for the D. S. S. & A. Ry., is on the range today, looking over the passenger situation.

George A. Perham of Eveleth transacted business here yesterday.

C. M. MacKenzie returned from a trip to the southern part of the state yesterday.

Capt. Ed Coombe and family contemplate a trip to their old home in England in December.

James Connors is somewhat improved. He has been very ill with a severe cold.

N. B. Arnold of Eveleth was in town yesterday.

R. Angst, chief engineer of the D. & I. R., was a Sparta visitor yesterday.

J. P. Rooney of Virginia was in town on business this week.

Mr. and Mrs. D. D. Sullivan are rejoicing over the arrival of a boy at their home.

Duncan Austin has returned from a trip to Duluth.

John Mustor made a trip to Duluth yesterday to purchase a team of horses.

Dr. B. K. Ellis is recovering from the gun shot wound received Saturday while out hunting.

John A. Jutin made a business trip to Eveleth today.

The D. & I. R. trains will change time Nov. 1. No. 8 will leave at 3:05 a. m., No. 4 at 2:35 p. m., No. 3 at 11:40 a. m., and No. 7 at 7:25 p. m.