

ASKS $10,000 ON FALSE ARREST

William D. Beslow Beigns Suit for Damages Against John Mesberg.

Alleging that John Mesberg, of Virginia, subjected him to the humiliation of a malicious arrest in that city last Sept. 6, William D. Beslow, of Virginia, yesterday entered suit in district court against the former for $10,000 judgment.

Beslow also alleges that the defendant conspired with Otto A. Poirier, an attorney, to accomplish the arrest, which he says, was based on a pretended false sale of property subject to a mortgage lien.

The arrest was made, Beslow alleges, as he was seated at the dinner table with his family. He was marched through the streets of the city, the target of all eyes, and disgraced by imprisonment in the city jail for several hours.

Beslow was then arraigned before Municipal Judge Charles E. Nelson and discharged. He says his business has suffered because of the disgrace attached to the arrest for which judgment is sought.
