

MANY AT FUNERAL OF MRS. C. OSWALD

The funeral of Mrs. Clara Oswald, who died Wednesday, was held from the family residence, 510 East Third street, yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Interment was at the Jewish cemetery. The services were conducted by Rev. Dr. Mendel Silber, rabbi of Temple Emanuel. The pallbearers were Louis S. Loeb, G. A. Klein, Samuel Levine, Sig. Levy, Jacob Sattler and Carl Levy. It was one of the most largely attended funerals held in the Hebrew church for some time. Mrs. Oswald has always been a prominent worker in Eastern Star circles, and was widely known for her charities among the needy poor in Duluth. Besides her two sons, Charles and Edward, Mrs. Aaron Heller and Mrs. Ben Heller, of Minneapolis, two nieces, and her sister, Mrs. M. Mannheim, of Rice Lake, were present at the funeral.
