

MISS ROSE GIDDING BECOMES A BRIDE

Her Wedding to Max Stern
Last Evening a Very Pretty Event.

Miss Rose Gidding and Max Stern were married last night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Gidding, 1405 East Superior street, Rev. Mendel Silber performing the beautiful Jewish ceremony at 7 o'clock.

Only the families were present, and among the guests were the bride's brothers, Benjamin A. Gidding and Joseph Gidding from Pennsylvania.

Miss Elsie Silberstein attended the bride, and Nathaniel Gidding acted as groomsman. Miss Irene Silberstein played the beautiful strains of Mendelssohn's wedding music as the party entered the parlor. The ceremony was read under a canopy of smilax which depended from the chandelier in the center of the room and was caught with flower ropes to the corners. Palms and a profusion of flowers were further used in the Gidding home.

The bride wore an imported gown of white net over a silk under-dress, carrying a prayer book, bound in ivory covers and a bunch of lilies of the valley. Miss Silberstein was dressed in white Dolly Varden chiffon and carried pink roses.

Mr. and Mrs. Stern left on the midnight train for the south where they will spend the next six weeks, attending the Mardi Gras and traveling. They will make their home in Chicago where Mr. Stern is in business.
