

Lillian Cook pink trimmed with black.
 The invited guests were:
 Messrs. and Mesdames Louis Hammel, Victor Kohn, I. Freimuth, Joseph Mountner, M. Cook, Robert Marcuse, Adolph Freimuth, P. H. Levy, J. Hirschfield, Robert Buchman, D. Casmir, Max Shapiro, W. Gomberg, G. A. Klein, Mesdames F. Mondshine, A. I. Shapiro, Ida Cook, Misses Della and Rae Finklestein of St. Paul, Josephine Sattler, Estelle Levy, Clara Shapiro, Irene Silberstein, Elsie Silberstein, Rose Krojanker, Isabelle Cook of Chicago, Ethel Dick of Cincinnati, Alice Martin, Messrs. Mendel Silber, Dave Loewes, Samuel Levy, Hugo Kohn, Albert Goodman, C. Levy, L. Levy, Louis Freimuth, B. J. Cook, Nathaniel Gidding, M. Rosenberger, J. Cook, M. Cook, D. Rosenblatt, A. Cornfield, Louis Zalk and Charles Oswald.

DANCING PARTY FOR MISS COOK-MR. GOODMAN

Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Josephs gave a charming dancing party at the old Masonic Temple last night in honor of Miss Henrietta Cook and Albert S. Goodman, her fiance of St. Paul, who will be married on Sunday.

A program of 14 dances was played by Flaaten's orchestra and at half past eleven a banquet was served in the dining hall at which the guests sat at small tables prettily decorated with pink hearts and flowers.

The gowns were very pretty. Mrs. Josephs was dressed in ivory satin trimmed with delicate lace. Miss Cook wore a gown of green prairie de chene trimmed with ecru lace and pink chiffon roses. Among the handsomely gowned women were Mrs. Victor Kohn who wore heavy white lace over silk; Mrs. Shapiro, white Brussels net over dotted silk; Mrs. Moses Cook, tan organdie with cerise ribbon yoke and trimmings; Mrs. Hirschfield, black; Mrs. Max Shapiro, black; Mrs. David Casmir, organdie over yellow with a touch of green velvet; Mrs. P. H. Levy black; Miss Della Finklestein, rosebud organdie; Miss Rae Finklestein, blue; Miss Rose Krojanker, white silk; Miss Estelle Levy green aeolian trimmed with a darker shade of velvet; Miss Elsie Silberstein, pink trimmed with black and white; Miss Clara Shapiro, white; Miss Gattleson, white crepe de chene; Miss Josephine Sattler white organdie and valenciennes lace with a crush belt of rose ribbon and Miss