

ALBENBERG & CO. MAY GO TO DULUTH

Crowded Out of Present Quarters, Concern Contemplates Leaving Superior.

The Albenberg & Co. dry goods company, whose term of lease in Superior expires May 1 on the present quarters in the Bruenig block, Tower avenue, may not re-enter business in Superior. Max Albenberg, head of the Superior concern said to the News Tribune yesterday:

"We have made a proposition to lease the Hunter block in Duluth and while we have not received a definite reply it is practically understood that negotiations will be consummated.

"We dislike very much to leave Superior, but we think there is a good opening before us in our proposed new quarters."
