

VIRGINIA NOTES.

RANGE BUREAU OF
THE NEWS TRIBUNE.

VIRGINIA, MARCH 4.—

The first sign of the approaching ore shipping season was the moving of an immense train into the local yards of the D. M. & N. yesterday. Virginia will be a busy camp during the coming season, the present force at local mines being about 800, which number will be doubled with the opening of the shipping season.

Mrs. R. E. Baille entertained a large number of her friends of the Royal Neighbor lodge at cards at her home on Lake Boulevard on Thursday evening.

John Horkey looked after business matters at Duluth the first of the week.

I. Rosenberg, formerly manager of a local clothing store, was in the city this week, removing his family to Hibbing.

Denny Martin, son of Judge J. M. Martin, who has been confined to his home for several weeks with a broken leg sustained by slipping on an icy walk, is again able to be out on crutches.

H. J. Neal of Stillwater and E. C. Taber of Keokuk, Iowa, have been in the city this week, looking after their logging interests in the section tapped by the Duluth, Virginia & Rainy Lake road.

Rev. E. M. Cathcart of this city has been selected to deliver the Easter Sunday sermon for Duluth Commandery of Knights Templar.

Gonzague Thuoin of Stevenson spent the early part of the week with his sister, Miss Della Thuoin, and other Virginia friends.

John Muzzy left this week for Portland, Oregon, and Seattle, Wash., with the intention of making his future home on the coast. Mrs. Muzzy will join him in the west this spring.

Miss Anna Duffala was down from Tower over Sunday, a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. B. Levin.

Mrs. J. M. Martin and daughter Luella left this week for a visit at their old home at Washington, D. C.

Frank Hughes has been appointed trustee of the estate of Albert Hirstlo of Zim, who goes through bankruptcy.

Mrs. A. Goodspeed and children left this week for their future home at St. Cloud, where Mr. Goodspeed has engaged in the blacksmith and machine business.

Miss Linda Wiseman of West Duluth is a guest at the home of her sister, Mrs. F. J. Reid.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Nichols of Buhl called on Virginia friends on Saturday, being among attendants at the meeting of the Range Teachers' association.

Mr. and Mrs. James Trezona returned on Tuesday evening from their visit to their former home in Cornwall, England, and to other points of interest in the English isles.

Albert Olson was up from Duluth this week.

John Peterson has been confined to his home on Wyoming avenue during the week with stomach trouble.

M. Shanedling returned on Tuesday evening from a stock buying trip to the Chicago and Eastern markets.

A. Trotter, filer at the Cook & O'Brien mill, spent Sunday with Duluth friends.