

B'NAI B'RITH GRAND LODGE CONVENTION ON

CINCINNATI, O., May 21.—The fifty-third grand lodge convention of the second district of B'Nai B'Rith, opened today. Grand Master Bloch read his annual message, the chief feature of which was the recommendation that inasmuch as the orphan asylum supported by the order at Cleveland was overcrowded and stipends were being given to worthy persons who are unable to obtain admission, a new asylum be instituted at Kansas City.
