

BREVITIES

Walter DeWitt returned yesterday from Nick Drew's summer lodge at Delta. Mr. DeWitt brought in a good supply of black bass and trout which he passed among his friends. He said the Delta lakes are the only ideal fishing and summer resort in this neck of the woods, and that Nick Drew and a number of Superior and Duluth friends who are camping at the lodge are having an enjoyable time.

The team attached to the delivery wagon of P. Handlovsky, a second hand dealer of lower Tower avenue, ran away a mile yesterday afternoon in time that would have done credit to Lou Dillon. The driver of the team lost control at the corner of Banks avenue and Twenty-first street, being thrown from the wagon. The team was stopped at the corner of Ogden avenue and Fourteenth street. There was no damage done.
