GRAND FORKS, June 29.—Roy Converse, who appeared in the famous yellow dog game at Duluth, had his revenge this afternoon and held the White Sox down to two hits, both doubles, and almost perfect playing gave the champions a white-washing. Two hits, one a triple, a bunt, and errors by Summers and Potts, gave the locals three scores in the fourth. A base on balls, a sacrifice and a hit added another in the seventh. The score:

SUPERIOR LOSES FIRST AT-HOME GAME

Five hundred enthusiastic fans witnessed the debut of Superior yesterday in the Northern league with the Crookston aggregation. The game was a fast one and full of life and ginger, but the Crookston men managed to beat out the home team by the score 3 to 1.

The trouble seemed to lie in the failure of the home team to connect with Sorenson's benders, but the fielding was counted as fast as any team in the league. Hanson pitched for the Superior team, and although touched up considerably, pulled himself out of some pretty bad holes at critical times.

"Rabbit" Ripley was in the game again yesterday and played his steady fast game, not alone behind the bat, but making the stations as well. The game started with the Crookston aggregation at the bat, and it was in this inning that they landed two men at home, safe and sound. They managed to flank the home team in the same inning and from that on up to the seventh round neither side scored.

In the third inning Harris made a stop and Nehr a catch which were pretty.

When Superior got men on bases they invariably failed to connect and therefore a goose egg followed. The lucky seventh at last turned up, and Howell was the first man up. He got to first and stole second. McShane sacrificed him to third and on a wild throw of Sorenson's he came home. This was all that could be secured in this round, and then they went on with the eighth. Superior gave the Crooks a "goose egg" and then in the last of the eighth made things look all off with the Crooks.

Ripley hit to Muller, who fumbled, and he stopped over at first. He then got anxious, and not satisfied at stealing second, took third too.

Harris hit and was thrown out at first, but that only put one down, and did not take any of the heart out of the fans. Ronesch landed on a pretty one, but Lalgity gobbled it and threw it to second making a nice little double. In the ninth inning both teams got a shut out.

Long, the umpire, managed the indicator satisfactorily, and if he will keep on with his good work he will win a warm place in all of the Superior fans' hearts. Spiser will toe the slab for the Superior team today and some good work is expected. The score:
