

CLUB MAY HAVE A LOCAL SENATE

Missouri Debaters Bring Up
Question at Banquet In
Y. M. C. A. Rooms.

A proposition to convert the Missouri Debating club into a "Senate" for the purpose of adding dignity and regularity to its proceedings was set out by John A. Goodell at the closing banquet of the club held at the Y. M. C. A. last night. The proposal met with much favor. The question will come up for discussion at the next meeting on the last Wednesday of September.

Rev. J. W. Schellenberger presided as Roastmaster and many edifying remarks were forthcoming under his management. A. A. Fider spoke on "Our Last Victim." G. K. Riess spoke of the future of the club; W. E. Cowden payed tribute to "Our Secretary." Ideas were also offered by other members present. Among those in attendance were Rev. J. W. Schellenberger, G. K. Riess, J. A. Goodell, A. A. Fider, G. M. Laird, Samuel Slonim, Sigman Slonim, F. T. Downing, Charles Foss, W. E. Cowden, L. S. Meader.