

EVELETH BRIEFS.

Mrs. W. E. Harwood entertained 30 ladies at cards yesterday in honor of her guest Mrs. W. H. Webb, of Mexico City.

Mrs. A. G. Kingston has been in Duluth this week.

W. D. Ellsworth, Jr., who has been at the First National bank since school closed, will go to Tower Tuesday to substitute at the State bank in place of Roy McQuade who will take a vacation.

The First National bank of Eveleth paid its semi-annual dividend of five per cent.

Jesse Bradley of Duluth, a Princeton university student, has been visiting friends here.

A. M. Turnquist went to Hibbing this noon.

Melvin Irwin is figuring on going with the Wallace Contracting company to run a shovel at the Pillsbury strip-ping.

G. A. Whitman will make a business trip to Duluth Saturday.

T. H. Bowman is in Minneapolis on a business trip.

The case of the state against Nicholas Amatuzio for destroying real property of Gabriel Grottier, was decided by a jury in favor of the defendant.

Max Greenberg, arrested on complaint of Henry Shanedling for slashing a cloth sign, proved an alibi and the case was dismissed.