

EVELETH BRIEFS.

A girl daughter was born to Mr. and Mrs. George W. Mulligan Wednesday, June 28.

Mrs. M. C. Lasch and Ella and Edwin Lasch will return from a trip on the Great Lakes, July 19.

A. L. Swan, of the steel corporation's laboratory, will spend the Fourth at his home in Duluth.

George Mesberg, wife and baby, have returned from Chicago and Milwaukee.

N. Milo Fiske will teach school the coming winter in Kittson county and later with Mr. Wright will re-enter missionary work in Canada.

Mrs. B. K. Ellis arrived from Alpha to join her husband, Dr. Ellis, of the More hospital. They will live at Sparta.

Ed Falk and family left Friday noon for Ogilvie, where Mrs. Falk and children will spend the summer.

Misses Pearl and Anna Sheehy returned Friday from a short visit at Hibbing.

The new St. Johns' Episcopal church may be ready for use this week.

Anton E. Johnson of Tower has been here this week.

Anthony Buck of Duluth was in town Wednesday and looked over Roy Cornwell's house, which is now nearly completed.

Louis Wallin expects to spend the Fourth at Two Harbors.

Miss Ida Schneider will spend some time at the Stephens mine with Mrs. Charles Williams.

M. Glasner, a settler on the range and a pioneer resident of Biwabik, was in the city shaking hands with acquaintances. His wife and youngest son will visit several weeks at Biwabik, while Mr. Glasner returns to Chicago and makes a trip to New York.

Guy Woodard has been enjoying a visit from his father, W. W. Woodard, of Minneapolis.

W. N. Rowe, who was transferred from a position of master mechanic at the Adams Spruce mine, to a similar position at the Hibbing mines of the steel corporation, was in the city to attend the marriage of his sister-in-law, Miss Elizabeth Blight to Mr. Remfrey of West Duluth. Mr. Rowe is much pleased with his new position at Hibbing and is especially enthusiastic about the large new machine shop now in the course of construction.

Charles Williams, superintendent at the Stephens mine, is moving some of his household goods to the mine and will live in one of the cottages during the summer.

Frank Indihar of Sparta has erected a large barn and will go into the livery business.

An ice and beer house costing $1,200 has been erected by the Hamm Brewing company.

The finance committee for the Firemen's tournament has raised $800 for the celebration Aug. 8, 9, 10 and 11. At the request of representatives of the Sun Insurance office of London a test run of the fire department was made yesterday. Twenty men responded and the run was made in two minutes and thirty seconds. The insurance men were pleased with the exhibition.