

BREVITIES

Superior Lodge, No. 338, I. O. O. F. will give eight candidates the third degree at their hall in Odd Fellows' temple tonight. Arrangements are making for a big time.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Parker, 5833 Tower avenue, a son.

A large concourse of friends and relatives attended the funeral services over the remains of Winnifred Haffey at Sacred Heart Cathedral at 10 o'clock yesterday morning.

Funeral services were held over the remains of Mrs. Anna O'Connell at Sacred Heart church at 9 o'clock yesterday morning. Vicar General Fardy officiated. Burial was at Calvary.

The Superior Dancing club composed of a number of the leading society women of the city is the name of a social organization launched yesterday.

A blaze caused by the explosion of an alcohol lamp at the Moon lodging house, 610 Tower avenue, gave the department a run at 11 o'clock last night. Beyond the destruction of a few tapestries, no damage was sustained.

Company A basketball team of Carpenter school had it handed to them last night at their own gymnasium by the aggregation sailing under the colors of the Cooper school, the score on the final round up standing Cooper 22, Company A 18. The contest was a warm one all the way through, and for a time it looked as though the Carpenters might win.

Another large congregation attended the revival services at the First Baptist church last night, listening to a convincing sermon by Rev. A. E. Peterson, the pastor.

Judge Vinje of the circuit court, who has been somewhat under the weather at his Central Park home for the past few days, was able to be up and about yesterday. The attending physician, however, has cautioned him that he must remain inside for the balance of the week and the judge has therefore abandoned his trip to Grantsburg, where he was to hold a session of court this week.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Cole, 1707 Lackawanna avenue, Billings Park, a daughter.

The Tuesday study class of the Theosophical society will meet today at 5 p. m., at the society headquarters in the Board of Trade building. The plan of work for the next four months will be laid out. The work to be considered will be "Outline of Theosophy" and

"Thought-Power-Its Control and Culture."

The Woman's club will meet Wednesday afternoon at the residence of Mrs. G. H. Conklin, 2119 Ogden avenue, at 2:30 o'clock. This meeting was scheduled to be held last Friday afternoon, but was postponed on account of the storm. The members are being urged to be present.

The meeting of the Elizabethan Drama club scheduled to be held at the library last night was postponed until tonight, on account of the inability to secure the lecture room. The subject will be "The Evolution of the Elizabethan Theater."

Mrs. D. B. Barber and daughter, Miss Bessie, of Hotel Superior, will leave today for Kalispel, Mont., where they will spend some time with Mr. Barber.

Wayne Ross returned yesterday from a visit to Hudson and the Twin Cities.

H. P. Phillips is here from Detroit, Minn., on business connected with the approaching municipal campaign.

Louis Helstein returned to Hibbing yesterday morning after attending the dedication of the new Jewish synagogue.

J. J. Surch, 1824 Fourteenth street, who has been ill for some time was reported as better yesterday.

James Mason, of Grantin, N. D., is the guest of his sister, Mrs. John Holman, of the Globe. He will leave in a few days for his home at Spokane, Wash.

Louis Huber left yesterday for his home at Minot, N. D., after spending a short time here with friends. He formerly resided in Superior.

Mrs. E. S. Nides and Nathan Nides have returned to Hibbing after spending a few days in the city.

Mrs. E. R. Smith, 1623 Banks avenue, is entertaining Miss Maggie Dunlop, of Almonte, Ont.

Mrs. C. F. Adams, of the Broadway Flats, has returned from Chicago, where she spent the past two weeks, as the guest of friends and relatives.

Mrs. Frank C. Buckley, of the Broadway Flats, is at home, after a stay at Des Moines, Ia.

Miss Katherin Healy and Miss Maude Chapman, have returned from a business trip to Chicago.

L. Wheelon and William Mooney, of the Great Northern, are at home after a visit to New Orleans, La., to attend the Mardi Gras celebration.

Mrs. J. C. Shea has returned to her home in St. Paul, after a visit to Mrs. Joseph Ireland, 1721 Belknap street.

Mr. and Mrs. John McKenna, 1517 John avenue, entertained Frank Clarit, of St. Paul, yesterday.

Miss Tillie Murphy, 1327 Banks avenue, is visiting in Chicago.

Rev. J. E. Aldstrom, of Billings Park, returned yesterday from Polar.

Mrs. T. F. Harris and daughter, were here yesterday from South Range, as the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Webb, of the Broadway Flats.