

CHISHOLM

(Range Bureau of the News Tribune.)

CHISHOLM, Dec. 18.—Ivy Leaf camp, Royal Neighbors of America have elected the following officers for the ensuing year: Sarah Howenstein, oracle; Anna Lundall, vice oracle; Rose Cummings, past oracle; Kate Waters, chancellor; Mable Trant, recorder; Lizzie Anderson, receiver; Rose La Londe, marshal; Kate Jordan, assistant marshal; Ellen Magnuson, inner sentinel; Mary Bissonette, outer sentinel; R. L. Waters, manager; Drs. Kirk and Schmidt, physicians. At a meeting tonight the Royal Neighbors made final arrangements for the January installation of officers when Lena M. Collins, chairman of the board of supreme managers will be here to act as grand oracle. The camp is now ordering a handsome set of robes for the officers and degree staff.

Frank Bask, has commenced work on the construction of a walk on the north side of the Longyear lake bridge.

Mrs John Kotchevan has returned from an extended stay at Mayo Bros' hospital in Rochester, Minn., where she was under medical care. She is greatly improved.

S. H. Groman has rented the building formerly occupied by E. G. Dahl and has moved in his stock of groceries.

The school board has just put on a bus to carry the smaller children to and from Monroe location school.

W. H. Richter, trustee, handed his resignation to the council at the last meeting. It was accepted.

Work on the road leading to the Bear river district has ceased. It has been completed as far as the old abandoned rail road bed at headquarters camp, which is two miles and makes a saving of about 12 miles to the Bear river farmers. Chisholm is now the town closest to them.

The Waa Tee club has issued invitations for a social dance to be held at the Fugen hall next Friday and Heinie's orchestra of Hibbing has been secured for the occasion.

The large machine shop at the Hartley mine has been completed and the company intends to erect there this winter one of the largest warehouses on the range.

Sunday was the coldest day Chisholm has experienced so far this winter. The thermometer registered 20 degrees below zero.

Miss Bertha Harris spent Sunday visiting her parents in Hibbing.