

CLOQUET.

NEWS TRIBUNE SPECIAL:

CLOQUET, Minn., Feb. 20.—Mrs. W. G. Dolan entertained at a Valentine card party for her sister, Mrs. L. W. Gibson, of Medford, Wis., who is visiting her. The decorations and score cards were of red hearts and bid euchre was played at six tables. The head prize, a beautiful gold heart, was carried off by Mrs. Stanley Campbell.

The Christian Endeavor society of the Presbyterian church entertained at a very delightful "Day Social" in the church parlors last evening. Each person was asked to represent some special day and a prize was given to the one guessing correctly the greatest number of days represented, which Mrs. Canfield won. After the guessing was over, each one was handed a slip of paper with the name of a song on it which was to be illustrated by a drawing on the blackboard, and the title guessed from that. The illustrations proved that much artistic talent is lying dormant in Cloquet. Refreshments consisting of delicious coffee, sandwiches and cake were served at the conclusion of a very pleasant evening.

The race skated by Miss Emma Andre of Cloquet, and Miss Katherine Peffer of Duluth, at the Washington Roller Rink Thursday evening was witnessed by a very large and enthusiastic crowd. The contest was close and exciting, Miss Andre winning by about four feet.

Miss Cecile Lynch and Herman Rabideaux, of this city, surprised their friends by going quietly over to Carlton Friday afternoon, and being married at the court house there. The young couple will go to housekeeping in Cloquet immediately.

Tom Wood, a sawyer at the Diamond Match plant, had an accident which caused the loss of three of his fingers. The other employes of the plant made up a handsome purse which was presented to Mr. Wood.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Taylor have returned from a delightful trip to the Pacific coast. They were gone about five weeks.

Miss Maude Farnham spent Friday in Duluth visiting some of the schools there.

Mrs. Coddling of Duluth, connected with the Penn Mutual Life Insurance company, was in Cloquet Wednesday on business.

Mrs. Huntington Taylor, who has been visiting for some time in Little Falls, returned home last Thursday.

The Missionary society of the Presbyterian church will meet with Mrs. W. C. Cobb on Friday, Feb. 23. Mrs. A. J. Taylor will take up the topic of China and Mrs. W. K. McNair will read a paper on "The Indians."

Axel Gilbrey and Louis Bonneville left for McLeod, Cal., where they expect to work for Orrie Johnson. Quite a number of Cloquet men have gone there lately.

Dr. and Mrs. James Fleming have departed for a visit at Winnipeg.

Isaac Summerfield left on Friday for Chicago, where he will visit for about two weeks.

Miss Louise Anderson, of Duluth, formerly of Cloquet, was the guest of Miss Floy Cameron last Sunday.

Next Friday evening the Norwegian Dramatic club will give the Norwegian play "Till Seters" in Elm's hall. It will be played by nine well trained amateurs, and after the play a dance will be given, with music by Reichle's orchestra.

Mrs. Albin Howe, of Superior, was the guest during the week of Mr. and Mrs. George E. Nichols.

Mrs. A. H. Rich left Monday for a visit with friends and relatives in Stillwater.

Alex Summerfield returned home during the week from a three weeks' trip in the east, where he has been buying new spring goods.

Miss Howe spent Saturday and Sunday in Duluth.

William H. Lamson, of Duluth, was the guest of his brother, Herbert H. Lamson, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Jackson, of Superior, visited here with Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Taylor.