

WILL DEDICATE SYNAGOGUE TODAY

---

Ceremonies At New Church At Sixth and Hammond Will Be Elaborate.

---

All arrangements have been completed for the formal dedication of the new Jewish synagogue at Sixth street and Hammond avenue this afternoon, a program of music and addresses having been prepared for the occasion with special care. Those who will speak are prominent citizens of Superior and the rabbis of leading Jewish churches in two nearby cities. Julius Gohan will be master of ceremonies, his experience on the occasion of the laying of the cornerstone making him especially qualified for the position.

The musical numbers will be largely contributed by Rev. Joseph Wolf and his choir of Duluth, who have arranged several selections for this occasion. The exercises are to open at 3 o'clock and preparations have been made for a large crowd. Many of the leading Jewish residents of the range towns and also from Duluth and the Twin Cities are expected to be present. The program is as follows:

Chorus selection..Joseph Wolf and choir
Address..Rev. Jacob Aronsohn, St. Paul
Address.....Judge Charles Smith
Address.....Mayor C. N. O'Hare
Address....Rev. Mendel Silber, Duluth
Address.....Judge F. S. Parker

The building, which has just been completed, is a handsome frame structure which was commenced during the early fall and only recently finished. It cost about $4,000 and is well-built, although not of unusual size.

---