

BEAUTIFUL WEDDING AT JEWISH SYNAGOGUE

Miss Sadie Polinsky and Isadore Kohn
Link Fortunes.

A beautiful wedding took place yesterday when Miss Sadie Polinsky and Isadore Kohn of Minneapolis were married at the Jewish synagogue. The ceremony occurred at 5:30 o'clock, Rabbi Helperin officiating.

The church was elaborately decorated for the occasion, ferns and carnations being used. Rabbi Helperin awaited the bridal party at the altar, while soft music sounded throughout the edifice. The bride was accompanied by her maid of honor, Miss Eva Polinsky; maids, Miss Winesberg and Miss Coneau, and two little flower girls, Sheba Polinsky and Dolly Liebermann. The groom's attendants were M. Nides, groomsman, of Hibbing, and Messrs. W. S. Decker and Samuel Moscow. The ushers were Messrs. C. D. Oreckovsky, G. L. Polinsky and Louis Oreck.

A wedding supper was served at Temple hall, where covers were laid for 500 guests at the handsomely decorated tables. Dancing followed.

Mr. and Mrs. Kohn will take a short trip and will return to this city to reside.
