

PEOPLE YOU KNOW.

Mrs. E. Van Keuran and her granddaughter, Eleanor Stubbs, are at Mel-len, Wis., visiting relatives.

Miss Ivy Davidson, of Mapleton, Minn., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Locke, of Arnold, and Mr. and Mrs. A. McCorison, of East Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. Earnest J. Warner, of New York city, arrived last night and are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. George St. Clair, 1125 East Superior street.

Mrs. J. A. Goodell and daughter have arrived in the city from Marshalltown, Iowa, to spend July and August here.

Mrs. S. I. Levin and daughter, Mir-lam, have returned from Chicago and Indianapolis.

Mrs. J. H. Bennett, 1620 East Third street, is entertaining Mrs. C. W. Sut-ton, of Manistique, Mich.

Miss Cook, of Madison, Wis., is visit-ing Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Hirsh, 629 East Fifth street.

Miss Eva Polinsky, 1124 East Sixth street, has gone to Chicago, Cleveland and other cities for a three week's trip.

Miss Grace Canney left for Minne-apolis, enroute for her home in Seattle, Wash., yesterday. She has been the guest of her uncle, A. E. Botsford, of 17 Baldwin flats.

Mrs. L. M. Botsford, of the Baldwin flats, has gone to Minneapolis, to at-tend the funeral of her nephew, A. D. Campbell.

Miss Leona Brudage left last evening for her former home at Priceville, Can.

Mrs. Edwin S. Hall and niece, Miss Emma Swanstrom, have gone to Brook-lyn, N. Y., where they will spend the summer. Mr. Hall will join them later. They will stop at Washington on their way back.

Miss Edith Lunning, of Minneapolis, physical director of the Young Wo-men's Christian association, of that city, is the guest of Mrs. J. B. Heim-lick, 232 Fourteenth avenue east.

Mrs. W. B. Clark, of Buffalo, N. Y., is visiting Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Patter-son, Park Point.

Miss Nellie Grant and Miss Ida Lewis left yesterday for a lake trip to the Ohio ports. They will proceed to New Mexico and will not return until late autumn.

Miss Vera Loudon, of Spokane, Wash., has arrived at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Frank, Eighteenth avenue east, to spend the summer va-cation.

Miss Frances Finlay, 2023 West First street, left last night for a trip to the Canadian northwest. She will be gone two months.

Miss Julia Kenney, of 737 Marshall avenue, St. Paul, is the guest of Miss Lauder, at Chester Terrace.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Ettinger, 308 Eighteenth and a half avenue west, are entertaining Mrs. Ettinger's broth-er, George Schutz, of Houghton, Mich., who came up on the India, Wednes-day morning.

Mrs. Stephen H. Jones, East Second street, and party, have gone down the lakes for a two weeks' trip on the steamer Hoover and Mason.

Mrs. Alex Lewis of Houghton, Mich., is visiting at the home of her daugh-ter, Mrs. Michael McCabe.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Peterson, Eight-eenth avenue west, entertained at din-ner last night in honor of Prof. E. L. Paddock of Boston who was their guest over night. Prof. Paddock is one of the foremost bacteriologists in the east and was passing through Duluth enroute to the Canadian northwest.

Miss Bertha Mills, 1131 East Fifth street, gave a basket picnic to Park Point yesterday for her Sunday school class. Eight small girls were her guests.

Mrs. F. I. Stone, East Superior street, gave a luncheon of seven covers yester-day for Miss Elsie Stone of Newark, N. J., who is her guest. The centerpiece was a basket of marguerites, and the place cards were souvenir novelties of Duluth. Bridge was played in the af-ternoon, the favors being won by Mrs. and Miss Stone.