

DULUTH MAN WEDS A BOSTON GIRL

Pretty Ceremony Unites Miss Fessie Sugar and Harry Glazier.

A pretty wedding was that of Harry Glazier of 115 West Second street and Miss Fessie Sugar of Boston, which took place at the Odd Fellows' hall, Lake avenue, yesterday afternoon. The ceremony was performed by Rabbi Tablitz of the Hebrew synagogue before one hundred guests. The hall was prettily decorated with palms, ferns and the national colors. After the ceremony a sumptuous supper was served, at which the bride and groom were the recipients of toasts and good wishes.

In the evening the bride and groom were tendered a reception and dance at the hall.

The out-of-town guests were as follows: Mrs. Anna Gorin, sister of the groom; Mrs. Sugar, mother of the bride, and Miss Dora Finn, of Boston; Mr. and Mrs. H. Barkovitz, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Levitt of West Superior, and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hallock of Hibbing. The ushers at the wedding were Harry and Morris Silk, Sam and Louis Bennet and Jake Glazier. The newly married couple will leave for a short wedding trip to the twin cities this morning.
